

Aimee Cloyd, RN, LHA Vice President of Quality Improvement & Member Services. Aimee plays a key role in the Association's quality improvement and patient safety efforts as well as education. She is instrumental in development and oversight of opportunities for nurse leaders, including providing guidance and support to the Louisiana Organization for Nursing Leadership. Aimee, a veteran quality improvement expert with 17 years of experience, received her Bachelor of Science in Nursing from the University of Louisiana Monroe and is a Lean Six Sigma Black Belt.